There will be key changes to EU immigration and the movement of people post-Brexit.

With the end of the transitional period looming, in this MEET | THE | EXPERTS webinar we will discuss from an immigration perspective how EU and UK nationals can protect their rights after 31 December 2020. Our experts will discuss the UK's approach to interpretation of EU free movement law following the end of the transition period, steps EU nationals in the UK will be required to take to secure their rights, and the action that is being undertaken by EU member states to ensure that UK nationals living in Europe have rights in their country of residence.
